Since their debut in May, designers Elizabeth Stuart, Sanyukta Shrestha, Terry Fox, Tobi Hannah and The Vintage Wedding Dress Company have celebrated success securing national and international recognition and for some, a cult celebrity following for their designs. All eyes will be on their eagerly awaited new collections to discover the most desirable dresses that discerning brides are going to be coveting in the months ahead.

Creating a buzz of excitement within bridal circles, award-winning Sanyukta Shrestha has made the headlines with her innovative environmental twist. Combining individuality with the contemporary, each collection is driven by the ethos of 'LOVE GREEN-BELIEVE IN ETHICS' reflected through both the fabrics and manufacturing techniques. This designer is all set to revolutionise the bridal industry- one ethical thread at a time.

The Vintage Wedding Dress Company, run by Charlie Brear, is taking the bridal scene by storm. Having expanded across Europe this year they now boast stockists across the UK as well as Ireland, Norway, Italy, Denmark and France. In recent weeks they hosted a star-studded opening of their London flagship showroom, attended by the likes of Jamie Oliver and Edith Bowman.

Opening new accounts in the UK and the Middle East, Terry Fox returns with a truly flamboyant collection, with inspirations drawn from Mad Hatter tea parties and elements of visionary Tim Burton's eclectic influences, this collection will not disappoint.

Elizabeth Stuart brings together her extraordinary vision to create the most breath-taking designs which launched her esteemed status. Returning with a wonderful new collection entitled 'Luxurious Luminescence', Stuart comments on her triumph at White Gallery London; "We received an incalculable amount of press exposure, and our brand is now available in several new locations as a result".

Success for Tobi Hannah has come in the form of wide-spread editorial coverage including a dress featured on the front cover of Cosmopolitan Bride, which has resulted in a number of new European outlets for the label. The new collection will feature extensively sourced textured and unusual fabrics used in interesting and innovative ways.

These five new comers of 2011 will be making a welcome return to White Gallery London 2012 as established names to launch their latest directional bridal collections. The 3rd edition will take place in Battersea Park during 20-22 May 2012.
